Science Center announces Harry Potter Movie Marathon

This fall, wizards & muggles alike can experience the original magic consecutively on the big screen

Louisville, KY (Tuesday, October 27, 2015) – Today, on the anniversary of fictional wizard Harry Potter's 35th Birthday, Kentucky Science Center announced their upcoming Harry Potter Movie Marathon. On the heels of their successful Harry Potter Summer Movie Series, this marathon event will take place on September 26-27 and showcase the entire Harry Potter Movie Collection in consecutive order on the Science Center's 4-Story Digital Screen.

"Only the most dedicated 'Potterheads' will be ready for this weekend of pure magic," said Science Center Communications Coordinator, Hannah Clore. "With short breaks between the movies, we're dedicating the entire weekend to celebrating these popular movies – one after another!"

There will be short breaks between the showings to allow for concessions, trivia contests, science demonstrations, bathroom breaks, costume competitions and more. Moviegoers can enjoy the Science Center's concessions available on their first floor – including themed items like jelly slugs and chocolate frogs.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE:

September 26, 2015

10:00AM – Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone
1:00PM – Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets
4:00PM – Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban
7:00PM – Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire

September 27, 2015

10:00AM – Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix
1:00PM – Harry Potter and the Half Blood Prince
4:00PM – Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Pt. 1
7:00PM – Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows Pt. 2

Tickets for the marathon, including a seat in all eight movies, are $65 for Non-Members and $50 for Members. They can be purchased in advance by calling the Science Center's main line at 502-560-7128 or online at KYScienceCenter.org.
