FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Where is the Youth Science Summit located? Brescia University 717 Frederica St, Owensboro, KY 4230. Some students may attend lab sessions at other locations throughout Owensboro.

How to register for the Youth Science Summit? Registration is available online at KYScienceCenter.org or by calling 502-561-6100.

Are there multiple days of the Youth Science Summit?

No, the 2017 Owensboro Youth Science Summit is a singular full-day experience; however, the Science Center is offering various Youth Science Summits at other locations throughout the state – visit <http://kysciencecenter.org/kids/youth-science-summit/> for details.

Which Youth Science Summit should I attend?

All Youth Science Summits will provide a quality experience with area- specific partners for the lab offerings, discussion groups and information sessions. There may be some duplicate content, so it is up to the individual to choose which YSS to attend.

My student will be entering High School in the Fall. Which track should I sign up for?

It's up to you. Students 10-18 entering Middle School or exiting High School are all eligible to participate in the Summit. Content will be provided by a variety of community partners, researchers, professionals, etc. and all presenters have been instructed to prepare content for an accelerated & enthusiastic youth audience. Youth Science Summits are also social experiences. We encourage Middle school aged students, even ones that may have skipped grades, to sign up for tracks with their similarly aged peers.

Will food be provided?

Yes a light breakfast and lunch will be provided for student participants. A vegetarian option will be provided, but youth should arrive with their own food if they have any other dietary restrictions.

Are parents allowed to attend?

No. Parents are encouraged to help students prepare and sign permission forms to ensure students get checked-in properly. It takes a village of adult STEM professionals to make these Summits a success. If you would like to get involved as a mentor or lab presenter please email Andrew.spence@louisvilleky.gov.

Can students leave program early?

No, full day participation is crucial for the optimum experience and students will receive their t-shirts at the end of the program.

What do students need to bring?

Students should bring completed Health and Permission Forms, Confirmation letter, closed toe shoes, and enthusiastic attitudes.
